Guided retreat*

Weekend 13-15 Nov*

Have you ever experienced profound moments of divine encounter?

Have you felt the powerful connection between heaven and earth when the Holy Presence has spoken into your life?

Perhaps you have had a dream, viewed a movie that touched you, or found a space which has become your sacred space with the Holy:

Perhaps you remember the embrace of a loving God holding you and healing you in a moment of silence.

Pray to be open to life, to love and compassion, the search for your truth in your own way, come what may - there at your edge....Open still further to what hungers and thirsts within, what scares you the more you try and run away and hide. Turn and embrace it – be open to surprise!

Noel Davis

This retreat will help us to be in-tune with the experiences we have when we engage with 'life'. How our life can, 'imitate art', and how this art (of life) form in its many descriptions, themes and colours can lead us to a profound place of being – being in heart.

How often have you really engaged with your 'self' when you reflect on what you have experienced after having, for example, watched a movie?

During this retreat there will reflections in the morning and on some evenings and spiritual accompaniment will be offered.
