Paul’s Letter to the Galatians

6 day Guided Retreat
March 20-26, 2020

Paul was born in Tarsus in Cilicia c.4BC. After a period when he persecuted the young Christian community he was enlightened on the road to Damascus c.34AD. He spent the next three years in the Nabatean area south of Damascus. He came back to Damascus and then, in c.37AD, after a brief visit to Jerusalem, he went home to Tarsus.

It was 8 years later c. 45AD that Barnabas invited him to join him at Antioch, and it was from Antioch that Barnabas and Paul, accompanied by John Mark, a cousin of Barnabas, set out on a missionary journey to Cyprus and the main towns in the southern area of the Roman Province of Galatia (47-48AD).

Back in Antioch Paul heard that some Christians from the community in Jerusalem had visited Galatia and were disturbing the new Christians there, saying that Paul had sold them short, and that to be a true Christian they had to follow the whole of the Jewish Law.

In this retreat we will be exploring Paul's response in the Letter to the Galatians. If, as seems likely, Paul composed this Letter in 48AD (only 15 years after the crucifixion), we are reading the oldest extant document in what we have come to know as the "New Testament".

We will begin with Paul's life up to the time he composed this letter, and then we will explore the whole Letter with two 50-minute presentations each day. This will involve reflecting on what Jesus meant to Paul, and how Paul understood Christian freedom, as well as faith, hope and love, and what it means to live a moral life as a follower of Jesus.
