Presenter: Paul White

There are many times when we find ourselves in difficult circumstances... weighing heavily upon the spirit.

We can feel despondent and isolated in what St. Ignatius describes as times of "desolation". St. John of the Cross reflected greatly upon the 'dark night of the soul'.

Through a series of meditations, there will be an exploration into the many different facets of God being with us and always loving us even in and through the times of dark moments.

Allow God to tell the story of God's great love back to me.'

Together we will ponder the times in our lives when we have experienced God being absent and yet at the same time being always present.

What of my times of shadow and doubt, times of light and darkness?

Let God be.....

Between the notes of every song there are spaces... there are shadows in the midst of every sunny day... during the retreat God may reveal God's self.

We will be reflecting on select scripture passages and exploring how, the power of "Yes!" changed circumstances in dark times; how we can live in the light of God's truth which can bring much joy to our lives and much needed peace and harmony.

This guided retreat will be 'time-out' to explore the possibilities – the spiritual possibilities – of living a new life in Christ, allowing God, in my prayer, to reveal to me just how God is experiencing all the diverse circumstances of my life.

The love with which God desires and delights to reveal to me through the varied circumstances of my daily life.
